

Legal Profile Setup

- The issuance of a Tax Invoice is mandatory for transactions involving GST-registered customers, as it serves as crucial documentation for their input tax claims on standard-rated purchases.
- A Tax Invoice is not required in instances of zero-rated, exempt, or deemed supplies, or when the customer is not registered for GST.

How do I set up my legal profile?

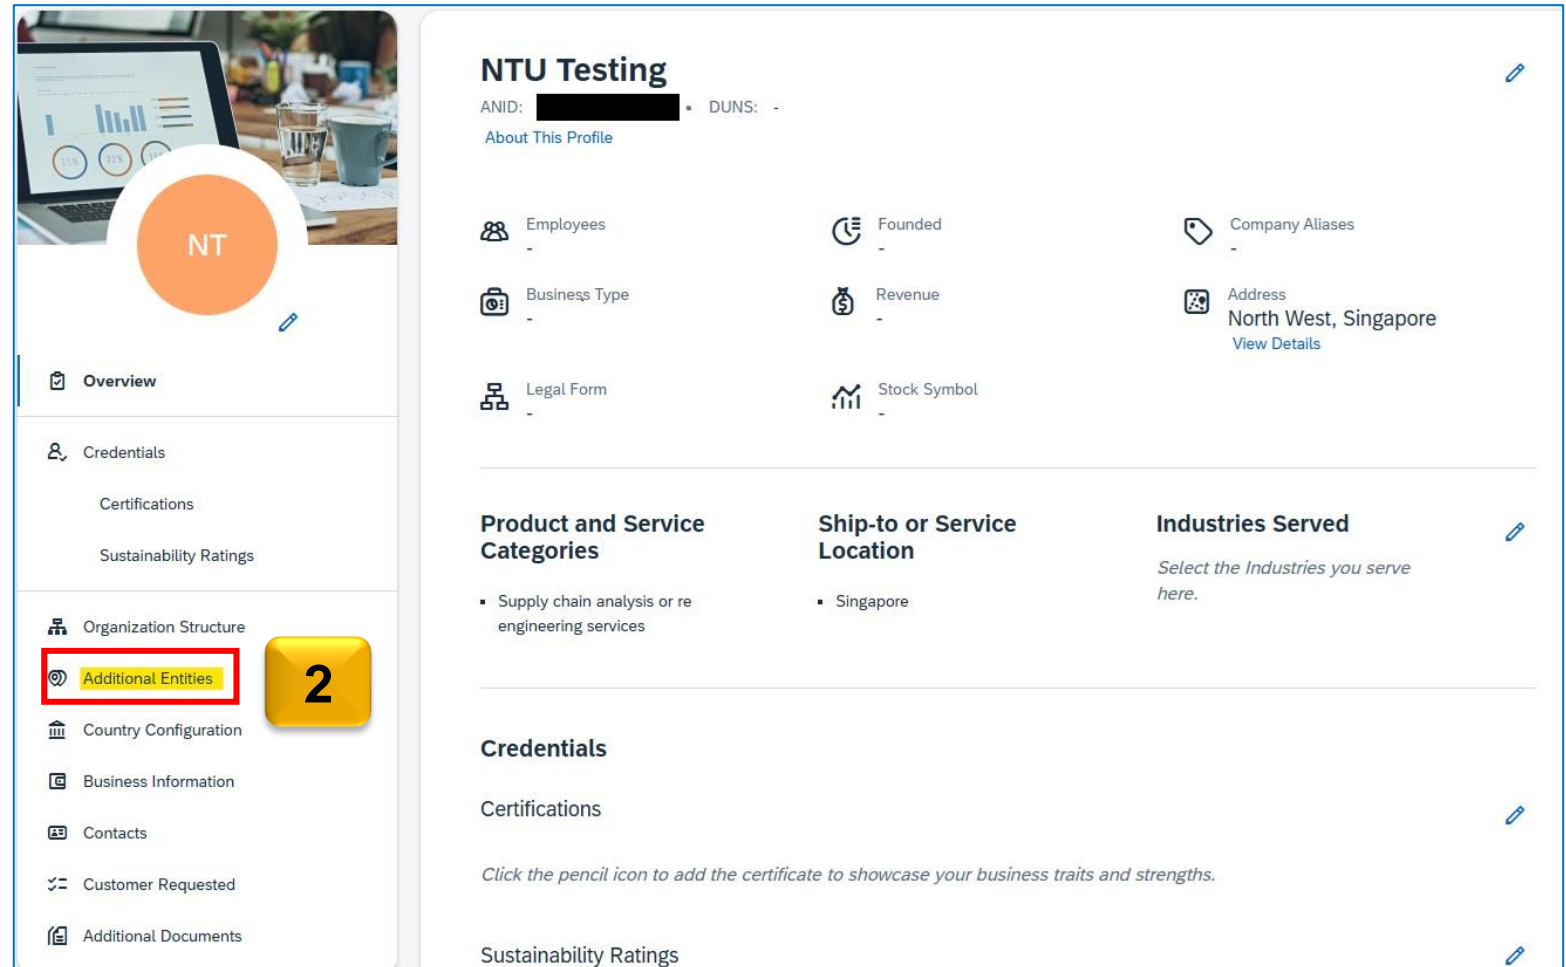

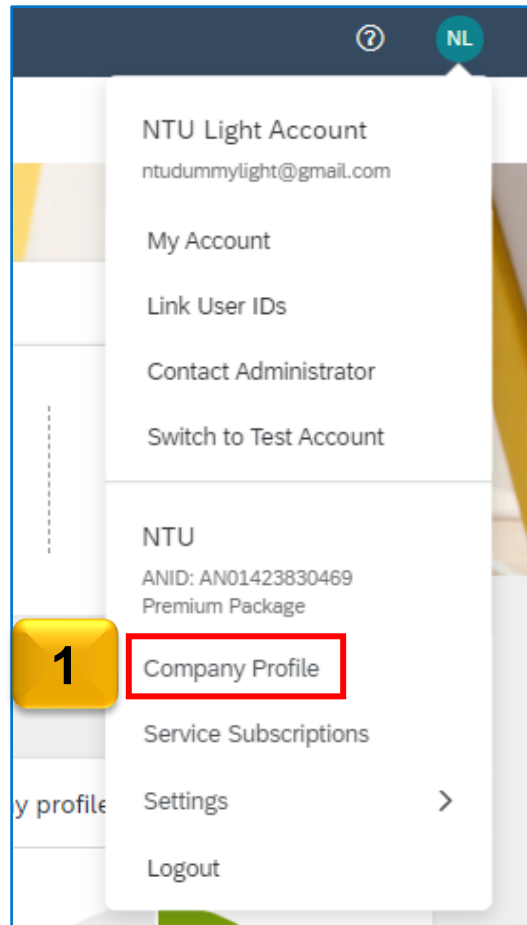

Please proceed with the following actions:

- Create Additional Entities – Skip this step if already completed.
- Country Configuration for Singapore Suppliers

Create Additional Entities

Create Additional Entities

Create Additional Entities

4. On the "Create New Additional Entity" page, fill in all required fields (marked with an asterisk).
5. Input Tax ID (UEN number) and GST ID; leave the GST ID field blank if your company does not have one. Click "Create" to finalize the additional entity/address.

The screenshot shows the 'Create New Additional Entity' form. A red line and a yellow box with the number '4' highlight the 'Company and location information' section, which includes fields for Company (Legal) Name, Country/Region, Address Line 1, Address Line 2, Address Line 3, City, Postal Code, and State. Another red box and a yellow box with the number '5' highlight the 'Legal and tax information' section, which includes fields for TAX ID, VAT ID, and GST ID. The 'Create' button at the bottom right is also highlighted with a red box.
