Trust in Research Festival

People First: Building Trust in Human Subjects Research

As part of NTU's Trust in Research Festival, the Research Integrity and Ethics Office (RIEO) held a two-part workshop series to promote trustworthy research involving human participants.

IRB Unlocked – Tips & Strategies (20 May) shared practical tips to help researchers submit stronger IRB applications and avoid common pitfalls.

Ethics First – Treating Your Participants Right (27 May) covered practical tips on the informed consent process, data protection, handling sensitive topics and management of incidental findings.

Thank you to all who participated and continue to support ethical and trusted research in NTU.
