Plagiarism: To use or pass off as one's own, writings or ideas of another, without acknowledging or crediting the source from which the ideas are taken.

Academic fraud: A form of academic dishonesty involving cheating, lying and stealing.

(Please refer to Student Academic Integrity Policy.pdf and Student Academic Integrity Procedures.pdf)

I understand the nature of plagiarism to include the reproduction of someone else's words, ideas or findings and presenting them as my own without proper acknowledgement.

I understand that there are many forms of plagiarism which include direct copying or paraphrasing from someone else's published work (either electronic or hard copy) without acknowledging the source; using facts, information and ideas derived from a source without acknowledgement; producing assignments (required to be independent) in collaboration with and/or using the work of other people; and assisting another person to commit an act of plagiarism.

I understand that the work submitted may be reproduced and/or communicated by the University or a third party authorized by the University for the purpose of detecting plagiarism.

Penalties for Plagiarism and Academic Fraud

The penalties associated with plagiarism reflect the seriousness with which NTU views cheating, and its commitment to academic integrity. This could include the award of a failing grade for the assignment (or the course), or expulsion from the University. This policy applies to all work submitted, including oral presentations and/or written work.

Keep a copy of the Assignment

Be sure to make a copy of your work. If you have submitted your assignment electronically, also make a backup copy.

DECLARATION

I declare that this assignment is my own work, unless otherwise referenced, as defined by the NTU policy on Student Academic Integrity.
