

Dr Lee Kin Wai

Associate Professor

Division of Accounting, Nanyang Business School, NTU Singapore

Dr Lee Kin Wai is Associate Professor of Accounting at Nanyang Business School in Nanyang Technological University. He holds a First-Class Honours Degree in Accounting, an MBA (distinction in finance) and a PhD degree.

Dr. Lee also serves as the Deputy Chairman of the Shell Singapore Employees Union Cooperative Limited, editor of Asian Academy Management Journal of Accounting and Finance, a member of Advisory Committee, Accounting Standards for Statutory Boards, Ministry of Finance Singapore and a member of Sustainability and Climate Change Committee (Education Sub-Committee) of ISCA. He has served as a member of the Corporate Governance Committee of ISCA and a member of Singapore Compact for Corporate Social Responsibility.

He conducts courses at the undergraduate, master's and executive levels for large international organizations and government agencies across sectors and industries. Dr. Lee specializes in financial statement analysis, capital market research in accounting, corporate governance and valuation. His research on corporate governance and financial accounting standards has been published in international accounting and finance journals as well as the mass media such as The Business Times and The Straits Times.

Throughout his academic career, Dr Lee has received multiple awards for his teaching excellence including recent ones such as Teacher of the Year Award (MSc in Accountancy) in 2024.

Prior to joining academia, he had extensive industry experience in accounting and finance and was the Group Accounting Manager in a publicly listed multinational corporation.