

LIST OF COURSES FOR MA in APPLIED LINGUISTICS

Core Course

- MAE900 Research Methodology in Applied Linguistics

Required Specialisation Courses (Choose two)

- MAE901 Discourse Studies
- MAE902 Language Acquisition Studies
- MAE903 Sociolinguistic Perspectives on the Classroom
- MAE904 Language Teaching Methodology

Elective Courses (Choose two for dissertation option or three for coursework option)

- MAE901 Discourse Studies **
- MAE902 Language Acquisition Studies **
- MAE903 Sociolinguistic Perspectives on the Classroom **
- MAE904 Language Teaching Methodology **
- MAE905 Language Curriculum: Theory and Practice
- MAE907 Oracy Development and Research
- MAE908 Research in Teaching Written Discourse
- MAE909 The Culture and Conventions of Academic Writing
- MAE912 Literacies in Society
- MAE913 Systemic Functional Linguistics
- MAE916 Critical Literacy: Theory, Practice, and Research
- MAE917 The History and Practice of Reading
- MAE918 Bilingualism and Biliteracy: Theory and Practice
- MAE919 Second Language Phonology
- MAE921 Psycholinguistics
- MAE923 Language Assessment in the Digital Age

 You may opt to take one or both of the remaining two Required Specialisation courses in fulfilment of your electives requirement.

One Open Elective Course

The course is to be selected from any of the courses offered in NIE's Master's degree programmes, including the MAAL programme. You are advised to take note of the prerequisites (if any) before registering.

Please note that not all courses listed under a semester will actually be offered. Course offering depends on staff availability.